

I and many of my family members enjoy watching religious programing on network and cable channels. You are wrong to support the "a la carte cable regulation" Docket #04-207. Please strike down this proposal. Instead of going after limiting religious programing, I suggest you try to control the "Janet Jacksons" of the airways. That will keep you plenty busy.